Q6 What do you value most from the KCFCA meetings, what do you NOT want to see changed?

Answered: 19 Skipped: 0

#	Responses	Date
1	Interactions with the other chiefs. Finding out that problems aren't so unique to one particular agency.	4/30/2014 11:55 AM
2	coordination between zones	4/28/2014 1:50 PM
3	Regional collaboration and information exchange	4/28/2014 12:58 PM
4	Networking among peers. Educational content. Discussion of policy & strategy concerns affecting all fire and rescue services.	4/28/2014 12:07 PM
5	relationships and standardization are the greatest values	4/28/2014 10:13 AM
6	I like the opportunities to network and share information with peers from around the county.	4/18/2014 8:51 AM
7	The networking and side conversations are very valuable. We have seen improved engagement by members so I would suggest keeping the dialogue focused on issues that are important and engage the group for discussions.	4/18/2014 7:39 AM
8	Interaction with key fire/ems officials	4/15/2014 7:10 PM
9	monthly interaction with peers. ability to get real time feedback on current and emerging matters. learn from others experiences. comradery.	4/15/2014 4:04 PM
10	Regional topics are very valuable. Randy as President.	4/15/2014 9:17 AM
11	The networking is good, the policy decision in nearly nonexistent. There is no real penalty for missing these meetings.	4/15/2014 8:56 AM
12	Have not been to a meeting, yet.	4/15/2014 7:08 AM
13	Discussion and action on regional issues of importance.	4/14/2014 4:34 PM
14	Interaction between Chiefs. Meetings being organized and released when over.	4/14/2014 4:09 PM
15	Becoming aware of issues and addressing them as a group.	4/14/2014 3:53 PM
16	Information presented that I would not get unless I attended the meeting and speaking with other fire chiefs. Keep the meeting place to one or two places, trying to find different places each month adds to the time needed to travel. I know exactly how long it takes to get to the current location.	4/14/2014 3:24 PM
17	I like being able to meet with the area chiefs to discuss issues and trade ideas.	4/14/2014 3:13 PM
